NOTIFICATION.

FORT ST GEORGE, FEBRUARY 13, 1930.

No. 8.—His Excellency Rear Admiral E. J. A. Fullerton, C.B., D.S.O., the Naval Commander-in-Chief of the East Indies Station, is expected to arrive at Madras in the Flagship H.M.S. "Enterprise" between 8 and 9 a.m. on Friday the 21st February 1930. As soon as the Flagship is sighted, the Deputy Port Conservator, Madras, will intimate the fact by telephone to the Chief Secretary to Government, the Staff Officer, Southern Brigade Area, Fort St George, and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor. On arrival of the Flagship in the Harbour, the Presidency Port Officer accompanied by the Deputy Port Conservator and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, will go on board.

2. The following arrangements are prescribed for His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief's reception at 10 a.m. on Friday the 21st February 1930 on landing at the West quay:—

His Excellency will be received on landing with the honours due to his rank; arrangements will be made for a guard of honour and band to be stationed on the West quay and the usual salute will be fired. The following officers will be present on the quay:—

1. The Officer Commanding, Madras, in the absence of the Commander, Southern Brigade Area, Madras.
2. The Chairman of the Madras Port Trust.
3. The Presidency Port Officer.
4. The Collector of Madras.
5. The Commissioner of Police.
6. Such Military Officers as the Commander, Southern Brigade Area, may detail.
7. The Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor.
8. An Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency the Governor.

The President of the Corporation of Madras has been invited to be present.

Dress for Military Officers will be review order-khaki.

3. His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief will then proceed to Government House in a State carriage accompanied by three officers of His Excellency's staff and escorted by a detachment of His Excellency the Governor's Bodyguard. His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief will return to the Flagship by motor car accompanied by one officer of His Excellency's staff and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor. Another motor-car will convey the other two officers of His Excellency's staff together with an Aide-de-Camp.

4. At 11-15 a.m., His Excellency the Governor accompanied by the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor and one Aide-de-Camp will leave Government House, Madras, under the usual salute and will drive to the harbour in a State carriage escorted by His Excellency's Bodyguard to return the visit of His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-Chief. His Excellency will return to Government House by motor-car.

(By order of the Governor in Council)

C. W. E. COTTON,
Acting Chief Secretary.
